CHAPTER II

Shares and Shareholders

Article 6. The shares of the Company shall be ordinary shares with equal value. The Company share certificates bear the names of shareholders. All shareholders shall rank pari passu in terms of their fundamental rights as specified by law.

Article 7. The Company may issue and sell all shares, preference shares, debentures, warrants or any other securities as permitted by the securities and exchange law.

Article 8. In making payment for shares, a subscriber shall not offset any debt with the Company and shall settle the share price by one payment, except where the Company conducts its debt restructuring by way of issuing new shares to settle its debts to the creditors under the debt-equity swap scheme with the approval of the three-quarter vote of all shareholders present and eligible to vote at the shareholders' meeting.

The issue of new shares for debt settlement and debt-equity swap scheme under paragraph one shall be subject to the rules and procedures prescribed in the ministerial regulations.

Article 9. In the case of preference shares, any shareholder who wishes to convert such shares into ordinary shares shall apply for conversion to the Company and return the relevant share certificates to the Company.

The conversion made in accordance with the first paragraph shall be effective on the date of request. The Company shall issue new share certificates to such shareholders within fourteen (14) days from the receipt of such request.

Article 10. At the newly-issued shares offering, the Company shall issue and deliver share certificates to each shareholder within two (2) months after receipt of the full payment of the share price.

No share certificates shall be issued to any person until the registration of the increase of the Company's capital has been made and such person has paid for the shares in full.

Article 11. Each share certificate of the Company shall be signed or printed by at least one director or the director may appoint the share registrar in accordance with the securities and exchange law to sign or print its name on the share certificates. If the Company appoints Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd. as share registrar, the procedures in relation to any registration shall be made as specified by the share registrar.

(Signed by) _____ - Signature - _____ Applicant
(Mr. Auttapol Rerkpiboon)

Article 12. The Company's shares shall be transferable without restriction and be held at any time by non-Thai nationals for not exceeding thirty (30) per cent of all issued shares. Any non-Thai national shall have no more than five (5) per cent of all issued shares. The Company may refuse to register any transfer of shares where the foreign shareholding exceeds such limit.

A transfer of shares shall be valid if the share certificate is endorsed by the transferor with the transferee's name, signed by the transferor and transferee, and delivered to the transferee. A transfer of shares shall be effective against the Company when the Company receives a request to have the transfer registered, and be valid against third parties upon the registration of the transfer by the Company.

The Company shall register the transfer of shares within fourteen (14) days from the date of such request. If the transfer of shares is considered to be invalid, the Company shall notify the person making the request, within seven (7) days.

A transfer of shares listed on The Stock Exchange of Thailand shall be made in accordance with the securities and exchange law.

Article 13. If a share transferee wishes to acquire a new share certificate, it shall submit to the Company an application signed by it and at least one witness and surrender the existing share certificate or other relevant evidence. In this regard, if the Company believes that such transfer is legal, the Company shall register the share transfer within seven (7) days and issue a new share certificate within one (1) month of the date of receipt of the application.

Article 14. In case of the death or bankruptcy of a shareholder of the Company, if any person has shown lawful and complete evidence of his/her entitlement, the Company shall register him/her in the shareholder register and issue a new share certificate to him/her within one (1) month of the date of receipt of complete evidence.

Article 15. The Company shall keep a shareholder register containing at least the following particulars:

- (1) the names, nationalities and addresses of each shareholders;
- (2) the types, value and share certificate serial numbers and number of shares of each shareholder;

(Signed by) _____ - Signature - _____ Applicant
(Mr. Auttapol Rerkpiboon)

Article 16. During the period of twenty-one (21) days prior to each shareholders' meeting, the Company may cease to accept registration of share transfers by notifying the shareholders in advance at the Company's head office and every branch office (if any) at least fourteen (14) days prior to the commencement date of cessation of the registration of share transfers.

Article 17. The Company shall not own its shares or take them in pledge, except for the following:

- (1) The Company may repurchase its shares from shareholders who vote against a resolution of the shareholders meeting to amend the Articles of Association regarding voting rights and the right to receive a dividend, as those shareholders who vote against such resolution think it is unfair for them.
- (2) The Company may repurchase its shares for the purpose of financial management if the Company has accumulated profit and surplus liquidity and the repurchase will not cause financial trouble to the Company. Such repurchase by the Company requires shareholder approval, except where the Company repurchases 10% or less of its paid-up capital, in which case the repurchase may be authorised by the Board of Directors.

The shares held by the Company as a result of the repurchase will neither be counted in the forming of a quorum for the shareholders meeting nor have voting rights or the right to dividend payments attached.

The repurchase of the shares, the disposal of the repurchased shares and the cancellation of the repurchased shares shall be done in accordance with the rules and procedures set out in the laws governing public limited companies and securities and exchange applicable at that time.

CHAPTER III

Shareholder's Meetings

Article 18. An annual general meeting of shareholders shall be held within four (4) months after the end of the accounting year of the Company. This meeting shall be called "General Meeting". Any other shareholders' meeting shall be called "Extraordinary General Meeting". The Board of Directors may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever it is appropriate.

Article 19. One or more shareholder(s) holding not less than ten (10) percent of the total issued shares may request in writing to the Board of Directors to hold an extra-ordinary meeting of shareholders at any time but they shall clearly specify reasons for such request in the notice. In such case, the Board of Directors must hold a meeting of shareholders within forty-five days from the date of receipt of the notice.

(Signed by) _____ - Signature - _____ Applicant
(Mr. Auttapol Rerkpiboon)

In the case that the Board of Directors does not hold such meeting within the period specified in the first paragraph, the shareholders who have submitted the requestor other shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares as prescribed in this Article may hold the meeting by themselves within forty-five days from the lapse of the period referred in the first paragraph. In this case, it shall be deemed that such shareholder's meeting is the meeting called by the Board of Directors. The Company shall be responsible for all necessary expenses incurring from the holding of the meeting and reasonable facilitation.

In the case that the quorum of the meeting convened as requested by the shareholders according to the second paragraph cannot be formed as required by this Articles of Association, the shareholders under the second paragraph shall be jointly responsible for any expenses incurring from the convening of such meeting.

In the case that shareholders summon a meeting as per the second paragraph, shareholders summoning the meeting may send notice summoning the meeting to shareholders via electronic methods, provided that such shareholders have declared their intention or given consent to the Company or the Board of Directors as prescribed in Article 72.

Article 20. In calling a shareholder meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written notice of the meeting. The said notice shall be delivered to the shareholders and the Registrar under the public limited companies law for their information at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting.

The notice shall state the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and the matters to be proposed to the meeting in reasonable details by indicating clearly whether it is the matter proposed for information, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including the related opinions of the Board of Directors. The notice of meeting shall be also published in a newspaper for three (3) consecutive days at least three (3) days prior to the meeting date.

Article 21. The meeting of shareholders of the Company shall be held in the area where the headquarter of the Company is located or at any adjacent provinces or any other localities as prescribed by the Board of Directors. The Company and the Board of Directors shall facilitate and manage a shareholders' meeting with a fair treatment to each individual shareholder.

All shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at every shareholder meeting. In every shareholders' meeting, all shareholders shall have one (1) vote for each share. The voting procedure shall be done by raising hands, except at least five (5) shareholders request for a ballot approved by the shareholders' meeting.

(Signed by) _____ - Signature - _____ Applicant
(Mr. Auttapol Rerkpiboon)

Article 22. In any shareholders' meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to represent him/her at the meeting and vote on his/her behalf. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be made in writing and signed by the shareholder who appoints the proxy. Such instrument shall be submitted by the proxy to the Chairman or his/her designated person at the meeting venue before the proxy attends the meeting.

The proxy instrument shall be made in the form prescribed by the Registrar and contain at least the following particulars:

- a) the amount of shares held by the shareholder;
- b) the name of the proxy; and
- c) the meeting at which the proxy is appointed to attend and vote.

In a voting procedure, the proxy has a number of votes equal to the aggregate number of votes enjoyed by all shareholders appointing him/her, except that the proxy may declare at the meeting to vote for some shareholders by specifying the name of the shareholder and the amount of shares held by the relevant shareholder.

Article 23. In a shareholders' meeting, a quorum shall be constituted by at least twenty-five (25) shareholders present in person or by proxy (if any) or half (1/2) of all shareholders representing up to one-third (1/3) of all issued shares.

If within one (1) hour from the time fixed for the shareholders' meeting the required quorum is not constituted, the meeting, if called by a request of shareholders according to Article 19, shall be dissolved. If such meeting is not called by the shareholders' request according to Article 19, another meeting shall be convened and a notice of the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than seven (7) days and not more than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting date. At such meeting no quorum shall be required.

Article 24. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the shareholders' meeting. In the event that the Chairman is unavailable or unable to perform his/her duties, the Vice-Chairman shall act as the presiding Chairman. If the Vice-Chairman is unavailable or unable to perform his/her duties, the shareholders present at the meeting shall elect one of their members to be the presiding Chairman.

Article 25. The Chairman of the shareholders' meeting has the duty to conduct the meeting under these Articles and subject to the agenda specified in the notice of such meeting, unless the meeting resolves to make a change in the agenda with a vote of up to two-thirds (2/3) of all shareholders present at the meeting.

(Signed by) _____ - Signature - _____ Applicant
(Mr. Auttapol Rerkpiboon)

Upon complete consideration of all matters referred to in the first paragraph, any shareholders with up to one-third (1/3) of all issued shares may request the meeting to consider any other matters.

If the meeting fails to completely consider all matters specified in the agenda according to the first paragraph or such any other matters raised by shareholders under the second paragraph, as the case may be, and it is necessary to adjourn the meeting, the meeting shall determine the place, date and time for the next meeting and the Board of Directors shall, not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting, deliver to the shareholders a notice of the next meeting which indicates the place, date, time and the agenda of the meeting. The notice of the meeting shall be also published in a newspaper not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Article 26. A resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be approved by a majority vote of the shareholders present and eligible to vote. In case of a tie, the Chairman of the shareholders' meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 27. In the following events, a vote of three-quarter (3/4) of all shareholders present and eligible to vote shall be required:
